

Ignoring Daniel Media Packet

Ignoring Daniel is an exciting cover band making its way across the Cleveland music scene. We provide high quality rock entertainment for businesses catering to Cleveland nightlife. Our form of high energy, rock-based, party music provides an entertaining evening for patrons.

Ignoring Daniel has been on the Cleveland scene since November 2007, and we have performed at a number of west-side establishments including Molly McGhee's (Strongsville), Panini's Independence, Dirty Nelly's (Parma), and Stampers (Fairview). A list of upcoming shows has been provided below, and we encourage you to see the band in action.

Below is a listing of some songs currently in our set list. Our musical tastes include a large variety of selections from across decades and genres. Our philosophy behind the music we cover is simple... if it is fun and people enjoy it, we will play it. This listing is by no means comprehensive, and we make regular changes to the line-up for our regular fans and people requesting songs.

Twist and Shout – Beatles	All the Small Things – Blink 182	Perfect Strangers – Deep Purple
Gimme Three Steps – Lynard Skynard	Worst Enemy – Lit	Talk Dirty to Me – Poison
Dancin' With Myself – Billy Idol	Tush – ZZ Top	Ain't Talkin' 'bout Love – Van Halen
Hungry Like the Wolf – Duran Duran	Surrender – Cheap Trick	Baby One More Time – Britney Spears
Brickhouse – Commodores	Unbelievable – EMF	Rock this Town – Stray Cats

Along with this letter, we encourage you to listen to our demo CD and view our MySpace page.

If you are interested in booking Ignoring Daniel for future events, please contact us through any of the information provided below. We know after reviewing these materials and seeing us in action, you will agree our brand of high-energy music would be a great way to entertain your patrons.

Thanks you for your consideration,
